

NYCTCM Early Acceptance Tuition Credit for New /Transfer Students

Early Acceptance Tuition Incentive

The earlier NYCTCM has registration information to plan course selections /clinic scheduling for enrolled, new and transfer students the easier the process of planning for a new trimester becomes. With this in mind NYCTCM offers an Early Acceptance Tuition Incentive to newly matriculated students or transfer students in the amount of a 10% credit applied to their first trimester tuition.

Qualifying for the Early Acceptance Tuition Incentive

An Early Acceptance Date is selected each trimester to coincide with the registration dates for enrolled students. To qualify for the Early Acceptance Tuition Incentive new and transfer students are required to:

1. Submit an application with admission documentation to support an offer of admissions on or before the designated Early Acceptance Date for the trimester they plan to enroll.

Required Admission Documentation for Early Acceptance Consideration

- a. Completed application with the application fee.
- b. Transcript documenting 60 undergraduate college credits
- c. Citizenship/Visa status documentation
- d. Transfer students are required to provide a transcript from their current program with access to course description information.

To be eligible for the Early Acceptance Tuition Incentive for the NYCTCM Winter 2010 trimester the above information must be on file in the NYCTCM Admissions Office on or before December 5 2009.

2. A non-refundable tuition deposit of $500 is due at the time a candidate accepts an offer of early acceptance from NYCTCM. The deposit is separate and apart from financial aid. The $500 deposit and 10% tuition credit apply to the tuition for a student's first trimester of study at NYCTCM. Financial aid students will see the adjustment reflected in their first trimester tuition charges.
